

What to bring for Naturalization appointment

1. Your Permanent Resident (“Green”) Card
2. State ID/license
3. Passport if you have one – both current and expired (all the ones that you have)
4. SSN
5. List of dates of travel outside of the US, including Mexico and Canada, and including trips by car or bus.
6. List of addresses for past 5 years with move-in and move-out dates.
7. List of employers/schools/military service/unemployment for the past five years. (Including start and end dates, as well as names and addresses of each.)
8. Any history or contact with law enforcement? Need records (If you have ever been stopped or detained by the police, a “judgment of disposition and register of action” for each criminal record you have, including where charges were dismissed or the court found you not guilty. If your case never went to court, a “police clearance letter” that showed that charges were dropped or never filed with the court.)
9. If you are married to a U.S. citizen, his/her proof of citizenship (birth certificate if born in US or certificate of naturalization if not) Date they became a citizen - day of Naturalization ceremony. If married to a lawful permanent resident, his/her green card. If married more than once, please bring proof of marriages and divorces. For current spouse and former spouses all marriage certificates and divorce records (or death certificates for widows/widowers), dates of birth of spouse(s), employer of spouse
10. For each of your children (whether legitimate, natural, adopted, step or deceased), their: Dates of birth (birth certificates are helpful, but not required), Alien numbers (if they are also permanent residents, you can bring copies or photos of their green cards), Addresses (if they do not live with you.)
11. Check or money order for $725 made out to US Department of Homeland Security OR active duty military serving honorably (or within 6 months of honorable discharge) do not pay the fee; Proof of low income (for fee waiver): 2018 tax returns with W-2s (we’ll need a 1040 for each filer in your household); If you or someone in your family receive public benefits like food stamps, the most recent letter approving you for the benefit (“notice of determination” or “award letter”)
12. Cash or check for $110 made payable to: International Institute of Detroit (includes mailing fee)

International Institute is located at 111 E Kirby St., Detroit, MI 48202.
If you need to cancel or reschedule your appointment, please call us.